22 CASE NO. 1:22-MJ-00117-SAB
23 1:22-MJ-00114-SAB

24 STIPULATION REGARDING EXCLUDABLE
25 TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY TRIAL ACT;
26 FINDINGS AND ORDER

27 DATE: January 6, 2023
28 TIME: 2:00 p.m.
COURT: Hon. Barbara A. McAuliffe

2 This case is set for a preliminary hearing on January 6, 2023. The parties agree and stipulate to
3 continue the preliminary hearing until March 30, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. before the duty magistrate. Defense
4 counsel has continued to be engaged in discussions and further investigation, and needs additional time
5 to conclude that process. Additionally, the parties are engaged in discussions and investigation of issues
6 related to the defendant's mental health, as well as consultation with or seeking consultation with 7 experts.

8 On May 26, 2021, the Court issued General Order 631, which provided for a reopening of the 9 courthouse in June 2021, recognized the continued public health emergency, continued to authorize 10 video or teleconference court appearances in various cases, and noted the court's continued ability under 11 the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act (the "Act") to continue trials and 12 other matters, excluding time under the Act. On June 27, 2022, the Court issued General Order 652,
13 which "authorized the use of videoconference and teleconference technology in certain criminal

1 proceedings under the in the Eastern District of California.” This and previous General Orders highlight
 2 and were entered to address public health concerns related to COVID-19. Pursuant to F.R.Cr.P. 5.1(c)
 3 and (d), a preliminary hearing must be held “no later than 14 days after initial appearance if the 4 defendant is in custody,” unless the defendant consents and there is a “showing of good cause”, or if the 5 defendant does not consent and there is a “showing that extraordinary circumstances exist and justice
 6 requires the delay.” Here, the defendant consents and there is good cause.

7 Although the General Orders address the district-wide health concern, the Supreme Court has 8 emphasized that the Speedy Trial Act’s end-of-justice provision “counteract[s] substantive 9 openendedness with procedural strictness,” “demand[ing] on-the-record findings” in a particular case.
 10 Zedner v. United States, 547 U.S. 489, 509 (2006). “[W]ithout on-the-record findings, there can be no 11 exclusion under” § 3161(h)(7)(A). Id. at 507. Moreover, any such failure cannot be harmless. Id. at 12 509; see also United States v. Ramirez-Cortez, 213 F.3d 1149, 1153 (9th Cir. 2000) (explaining that a 13 judge ordering an ends-of-justice continuance must set forth explicit findings on the record “either orally 14 or in writing”).

15 Based on the plain text of the Speedy Trial Act—which Zedner emphasizes as both mandatory
 16 and inexcusable—General Orders 611, 612, 617, 631 and 652 require specific supplementation. Ends-17 of-justice continuances are excludable only if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his 18 findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and 19 the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). Moreover, no such period is excludable 20 unless “the court sets forth, in the record of the case, either orally or in writing, its reason or finding that
 21 the ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public 22 and the defendant in a speedy trial.” Id.

23 The General Orders exclude delay in the “ends of justice.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code
 24 T4). Although the Speedy Trial Act does not directly address continuances stemming from pandemics, 25 natural disasters, or other emergencies, this Court has discretion to order a continuance in such 26 circumstances. For example, the Ninth Circuit affirmed a two-week ends-of-justice continuance 27 following Mt. St. Helens’ eruption. Furlow v. United States, 644 F.2d 764 (9th Cir. 1981). The court
 28 recognized that the eruption made it impossible for the trial to proceed. Id. at 767-68; see also United

1 States v. Correa, 182 F. Supp. 326, 329 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Furlow to exclude time following the 2 September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the resultant public emergency). The coronavirus is posing a
3 similar, albeit more enduring, barrier to the prompt proceedings mandated by the statutory rules.

4 In light of the societal context created by the foregoing, this Court should consider the following
5 case-specific facts in finding excludable delay appropriate in this particular case under the ends-of-
6 justice exception, § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4). If continued, this Court should designate a new date
7 for the preliminary hearing. United States v. Lewis, 611 F.3d 1172, 1176 (9th Cir. 2010) (noting any 8 pretrial continuance must be “specifically limited in time”).

9 STIPULATION

10 Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and defendant, by and 11 through defendant’s counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

12 1. By previous order, this matter was set for preliminary hearing on January 6, 2023.

13 2. By this stipulation, defendant now moves to continue the preliminary hearing until

14 March 30, 2023, at 2:00 p.m. and to exclude time between January 6, 2023, and March 30, 2023, under 15 Local Code T4.

16 3. The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:

17 a) The parties are discussing and conducting further investigation into pre-
18 indictment matters, and need additional time to conclude.

19 b) Counsel for defendant desires additional time to consult with her client, conduct
20 further investigation, and discuss charges with the government.

21 c) Counsel for defendant has recently received a report from an expert defense
22 retained, and the parties need time to further discuss and evaluate that.

23 d) The parties are engaged in discussions and investigation of issues related to the 24 defendant’s mental health, as well as consultation with or seeking consultation with experts

25 e) Counsel for defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested
26 continuance would deny him the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into 27 account the exercise of due diligence.

28 f) The government does not object to the continuance.

g) Pursuant to F.R.Cr.P. 5.1(c) and (d), a preliminary hearing must be held "no later than 14 days after initial appearance if the defendant is in custody," unless the defendant consents and there is a "showing of good cause". Here, the defendant consents and there is good cause as set forth herein.

h) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in an indictment or trial within the original dates prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

i) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq., within which an indictment must be filed and within which a trial must commence, the time period of January 6, 2023 to March 30, 2023, inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) [Local Code T4] because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at defendant's request on the basis of the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy indictment/trial.

1       4. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the 2 Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which an
3 indictment must be filed and a trial must commence.

4       IT IS SO STIPULATED.
